

Human Services

The Human Services track is coursework that is intended to prepare students for careers such as teaching, coaching, child care, consumer services, investments & insurance. The certifications available will help facilitate employment in entry level positions and promote continuing education at the post-secondary level.

Courses offered:

Principles of Human Services

Child Development

Dollars & Sense

Child Guidance

Practicum in Human Services

